

House Resolution No. 373

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are fully cognizant that the future of this great state and nation is dependent upon the educational opportunities which are available to young citizens in their formative years; and

Whereas, Catholic schools all across this country play a prominent role in educating our children and in preparing them for the challenges of the adult world, where they will one day assume many responsibilities as good citizens committed to serving others; and

Whereas, Catholic schools are known for their remarkable success in producing students who are strongly dedicated to their faith, values, families, and communities by providing an intellectually stimulating environment rich in spiritual, character, and moral development; and

Whereas, America's Catholic schools proudly celebrated their achievements and renewed their commitment to excellence during the week of January 26, 2003, a special period of time that had been designated as Catholic Schools Week; and

Whereas, St. Brendan Catholic School in Mexico, Missouri, was one of the many schools that participated in activities centered around the theme, "Catholic Schools: Making a World of Difference"; and

Whereas, William Seigfreid, a student at St. Brendan Catholic School, enjoyed the honor and the distinction of being selected as a candidate in the King Contest that was a special highlight of Catholic Schools Week; and

Whereas, William Seigfreid is admired and respected by his teachers and classmates for the outstanding qualities that he displays as a youngster with considerable promise for a successful future:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join St. Brendan Catholic School in applauding William Seigfreid for the glory that he experienced upon being chosen a candidate for King and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to pursue his goals in all aspects of endeavor; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for William Seigfreid, as a mark of our esteem for him.
